

House Story

Using an idea that came to mind as you drew your house diagram or described it to your partner, write a brief narrative.

Use narrative format to tell your story. You may use dialogue, setting, characterization, or other narrative features as appropriate.

Your house story should be at least 2-3 paragraphs, though more is also acceptable.

A draft goes in your notebook, but you will also turn in a final copy outside of the notebook.