

Lemons and Oranges

- Create a double bubble map comparing lemons and oranges.
- Using details from your double bubble map, write 5 simple sentences .
- Using details from your double bubble map, write 5 compound sentences.
- Using details from your double bubble map, write 3 complex sentences.
- Using details from your double bubble map, write 1 compound-complex sentence.

Lemons and Oranges

You can squeeze an orange and drink the juice without mixing with anything.

You can mix lemon juice with sugar to make lemonade.

Lemon has more citric acid than oranges.

You can use lemon zest in foods.

Lemon kills your teeth.

You can also use orange zest to flavor food.

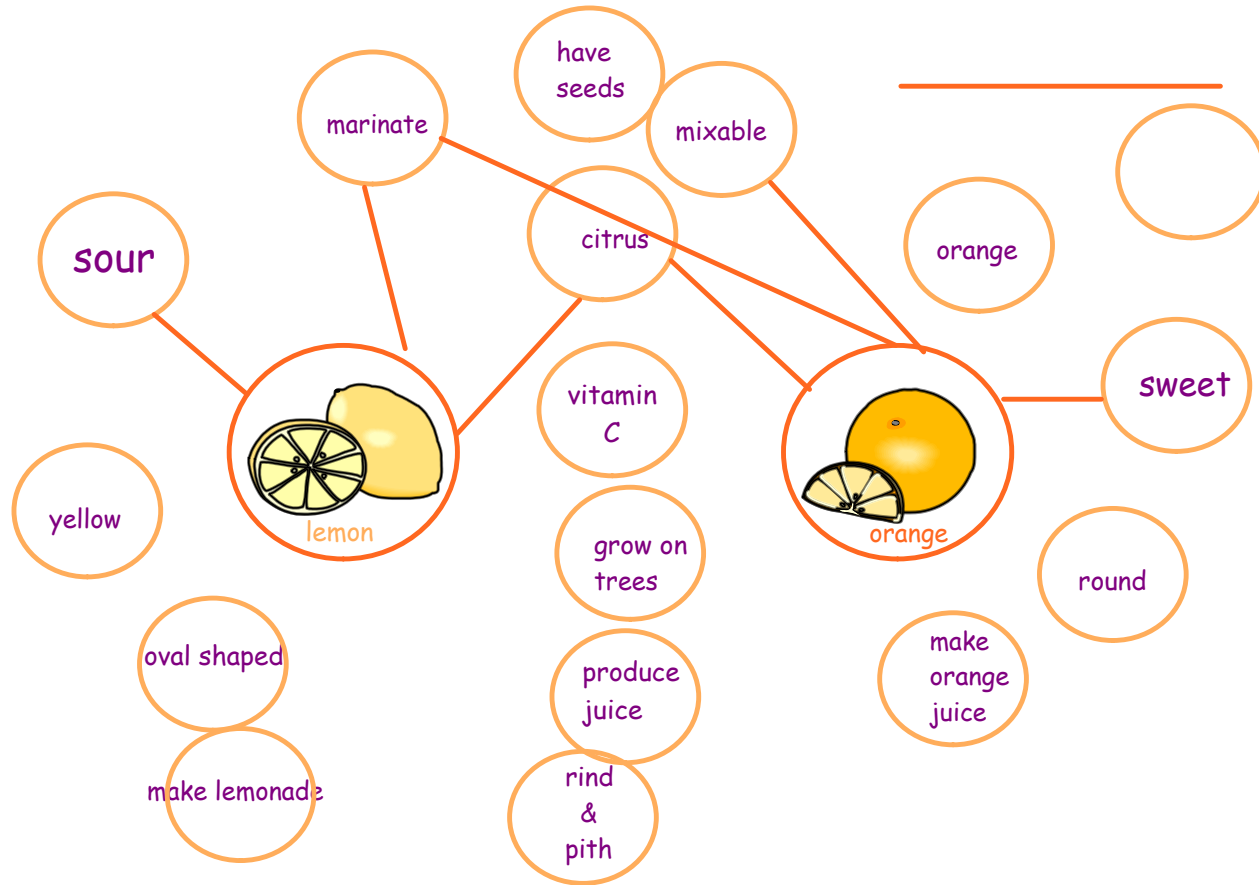

Lemons are sour.

Lemons are yellow.

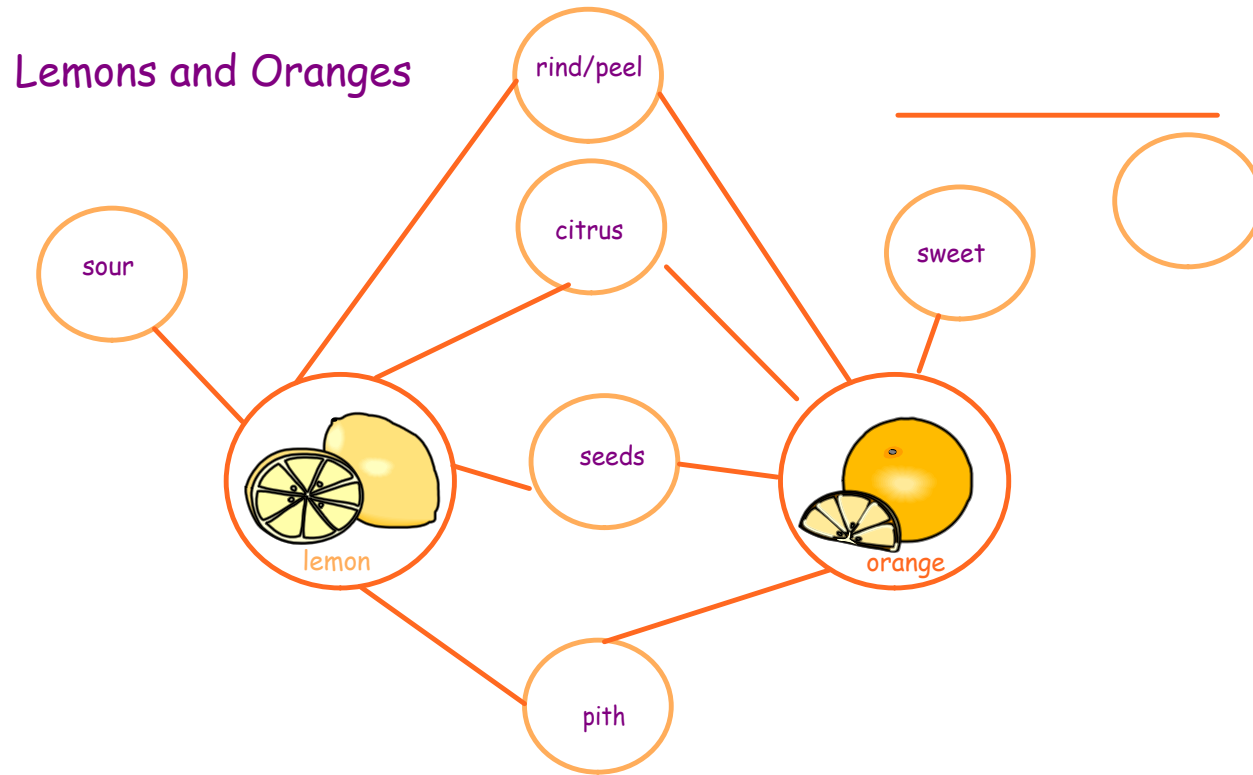

Oranges are better because they are sweet.

Lemon is used to flavor a lot of food.

Lemons and Oranges

Lemons and Oranges

Complex-compound sentence

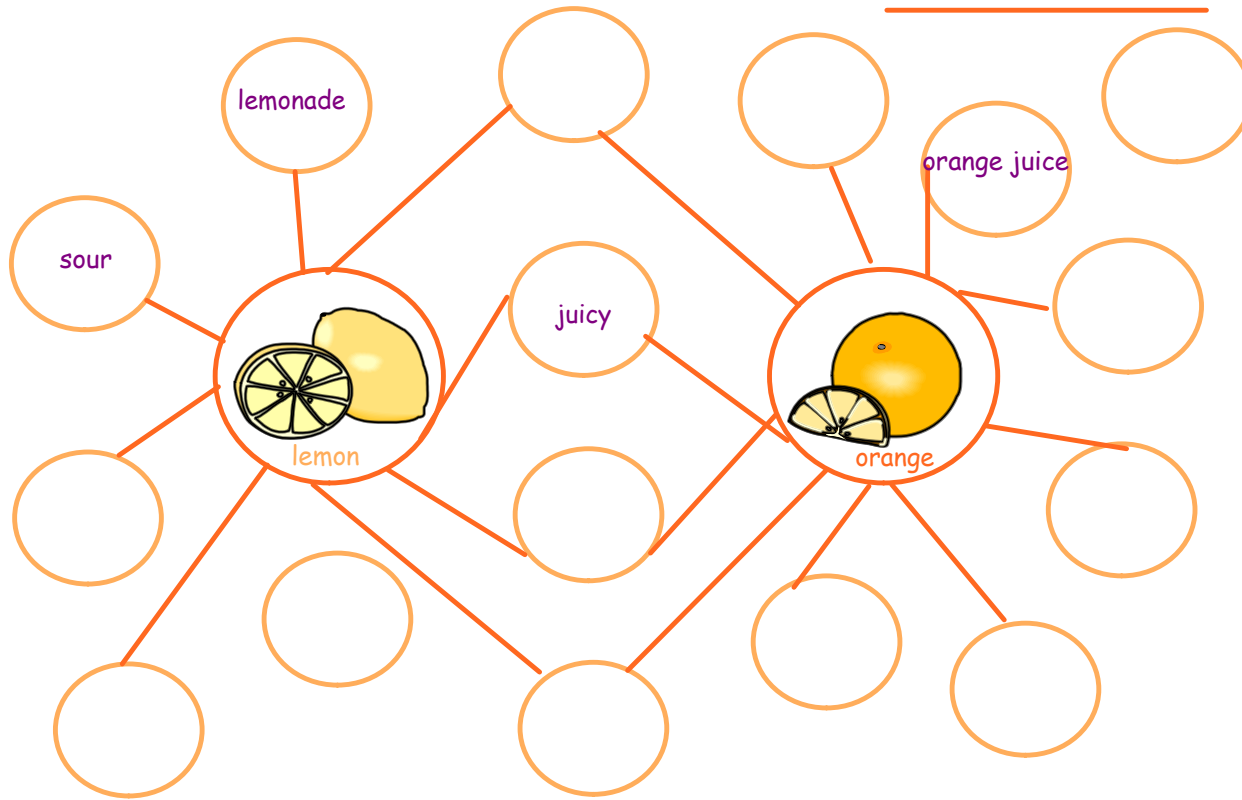

1 compound sentence + at least 1 dependent clause = complex-compound sentence

Compound: Lemons and oranges taste good, and they have vitamins.

Lemons and oranges taste good, and they have vitamins, which is important.

Even though they're both fruits, lemons are sour, but oranges are sweet.

Lemons and Oranges

Lemons and Oranges

