

Quickwrite: Point of view in "Everything Will Be Okay"

"Everything Will Be Okay" is told in first person point of view. The narrator is the character James Howe, the young boy who finds a stray cat.

How would the story be different if the story was told in a different perspective? (In other words, how would the story be different if it was told in third person? What if it was told by another character in the story?) Be specific about the differences that might occur in the narrative.
