

Remembering a narrative

Write a summary of a narrative (short story, book, movie, etc.) that had a strong impact on you. Include the main ideas of the story, as well as significant details. After you have summarized the story, you should then explain what it was about the story, song, or movie that was so memorable or created the impact.

